Q3BNIK

Valli talks about her pet and friends.

I am Valli.

You are Chittu.

We are friends.

You are a boy.

You are boys.

Chittu: Why do you say
I 'am' but You 'are'?

Valli: We should use am after I and
are after you and we.

Note to the teacher: Explain to children that we use "am" after "I" and "are" after "You" and "We" in present tense.
