
Ma, why do I have these long eyelashes?
My child, in the desert there are strong winds. These winds carry sand with them. Our eyelashes keep our eyes safe from these winds.
Do you know, why we have humps on our back? In the desert, it's hard to find food and water. Our humps store food, so that we can use the food in the hump if we cannot find it in the desert.