Be Honest

Amma will often say,
Be honest all day!
Still troubles make me fall,
I want to be truthful to all!

Amma will often say,
Be honest every day!
To say truth when I am wrong,
I may have to be eighteen!

To Amma I often say,
Don't you hear them lie?
She says many may lie and go
But honesty will help us grow!

At last, I have this to say,
I don't lie to this day!
The trick is the rhyme,
Let's try this one day at a time!
