4. Opaque objects do not allow light to pass through them.

5. Mirrors change the direction of light that fall on them.

V Answer the following.

1. When can you say a material is waterproof material?
2. What is a light source?
3. What is the difference between transparent and opaque materials?
4. Define reflection.
5. Classify the objects given below as transparent, translucent or opaque materials.

(Air, Rock, Water, Aluminium foil, Mirror, Snow, Wooden board, Polythene bag, CD, Oil soaked paper, Glass tumbler and Coloured glass)

Transparent Materials	Translucent Materials	Opaque Materials

VI Projects

Collect some rough and smooth materials from your surrounding.

4th Science Unit 2 Matter and Materials.indd 102 20-02-2020 11:04:18 AM