Non-green plants

Plant that lacks chlorophyll pigment and looks not green are called non-green plants. They cannot prepare their food. These plants depend on other organism for their food and living place. These are commonly called heterotrophs.

Mushroom

Bread moulds

Bracket Fungi

Let us do

List out the places where you see the non-green plants

_____ _____

_____ _____

Try to Answer

Fill in the blanks.

1. _____ is an example for non flowering plant.
2. Plants are classified based on pigment and _____ of the plant.
3. _____ depend on other organism to live and get their food.
4. Autotrophs use _____ , _____ and chlorophyll to prepare their own food.

III. Parts of Flower

E8T4S6

Have you seen flowers? Try to answer the questions given below

a) Which is your favourite flower? _____

b) What is the colour of the flower? _____

c) How does it smell? _____

The four visible parts of a flower are explained below.

Sepal: Sepals are leaves that protect the flower while it is still a bud. Sepals are usually green in colour.

4th_Science_Unit 3 Plants.indd 82 06/08/19 1:19 PM